

Parents' Forum

All parents / carers are invited to the next Parents' Forum meeting on Tuesday 12th February

7:00pm–8:00pm

and

Wednesday 13th February
9:00am–10:00am

The Brookhurst Parents' Forum meets once a term and is an important way of ensuring that the views of parents and carers are heard by senior school staff. It is an opportunity to find out what's going on in school and to discuss school-related issues; such as homework policies, school meals, communication etc.

Meetings are informal and a genuine opportunity for open discussion to develop a strong partnership between parents/ carers and school staff.

Although it is not a decision-making body, the Forum has the opportunity to influence policy and practice.

To cater for work and home commitments, two times slots are offered to parents / carers, either in the morning or the evening. So do come to the next meeting and if you have a suggestion for the agenda, please either email the school office stating that it is for the attention of the Parent's Forum or just come along and raise your question.

Thread Worms

There have been some cases of worms in school this week. Please see the attached information and the link to the NHS website.
