What did you think of the exhibition? Upsides	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A lovely/great/brilliant/fabulous/good/fun/fantastic idea • Perfect • The amazing artwork • A beautiful celebration • A lovely feeling for the children to be so proud of their art work • Children were excited to show off their art • Its good to create interest towards art • It looked very professional • Loved the frames • Lovely atmosphere • Layout was fabulous • Really vibrant and great standard of art • Great to see all the different year's work • Well organised
What did you think of the exhibition? Downsides	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It was busy and chaotic • The queue for buying paintings was huge and off putting • Lack of communication over where the money was going. Happy to contribute to school funds but not pay money for an outside business. If none of the money is going to school this should have been communicated as some felt they were unaware of it and made assumptions the money was for school • Too many similar images • Very expensive if you have more than one child event if we ran it again?

- art with their child a more pleasant experience
- Clearer communication regarding where the money is going
- An option to pay for an unframed version
- More personal choice of subject to be painted, more varied work
- Combine it with events such as parents evening
- More notice
- Having refreshments available may have helped raise money for the BSA
- Pay later envelopes at the door or an option to pay online
